

FRENSHAM
HALL

FRENSHAM HALL

Rural beauty paired with elegant sophistication.

Frensham Hall is a beautiful Edwardian manor house located in the stunning Surrey Hills just an hour outside of London. With a unique versatility within the house and throughout the grounds, we will take you on a journey of possibilities to create your perfect day.

Frensham Hall, Rowledge, Farnham, Surrey GU10 4EA

FRENSHAM HALL

Our History

Frensham Hall was built as a family home for the Charrington family in 1898. Its rich history spans two world wars and the site has been privately owned since 1925. Exquisite detailing throughout softens the grand building, creating an intimate personal space for events of all sizes. From the elegant balls of the early 1900s to an endless array of modern weddings and events, the warmth and versatility of Frensham Hall lends itself to all.

The sky's the limit

Weddings at Frensham Hall start and end with you, your dreams and your perfect day. With no standard packages, each wedding begins with a clean slate, a beautiful background and a unique flexibility of venue and staff. We are here to bring your dream day to life, whatever that may be.

We'll start with your hopes and aspirations, not lists of limitations and requirements, and we'll do our best to make them all come true. Your perfect day may come to life as an intimate romantic ceremony in a pretty walled garden. Or perhaps you dream of sweeping down a grand staircase towards an elegant celebration in a stunning ballroom - to dance the night away in a manor which has hosted exquisite soirees for over a century. Or will we be pulling out all the stops with hundreds of guests celebrating in gorgeous decorated marquees on the lawn under a sky of stars and fireworks? The s

Exclusive & Intimate

Pairing rural beauty with elegant sophistication, Frensham Hall is ideal for those looking for a country house wedding. Six stunning, interconnected internal spaces and four distinct external areas create endless possibilities for each wedding couple.

And when Frensham Hall is yours, it truly is - from Friday evening through to Sunday afternoon, the Hall and its immediate grounds will be yours alone.

Elegant Sophistication

Within Frensham Hall are several intertwined beautiful spaces, from our grand Ballroom to the delicate Drawing Room, each with their own distinct character. Exclusively yours for your wedding weekend, by taking full advantage of this unique versatility, you can bring your dream day to life. From a traditional formal ceremony to a small eclectic affair, we will work with you down to the smallest detail to turn Frensham Hall into your dream setting.

The Ballroom

Both elegant and grand, the majestic Edwardian Ballroom with its intricately carved cornices, pillars and ceilings is the jewel of Frensham Hall. A handsome setting for a formal civil ceremony, extravagant wedding breakfast and indeed an evening disco. The Ballroom is as practical and flexible as it is breathtaking. With doors leading from the Orangerie, Long Gallery, Old Dining Room and the Terrace and Lawn, the Ballroom will be the hub of your magical day.

The Long Gallery

The Long Gallery in Frensham Hall really needs to be experienced to be fully appreciated. One wall gives way to a full-length majestic stained-glass leaded window, while the wall opposite holds a monumental stone fireplace. The walls between are richly panelled and traces of an imposing pipe organ whisper of the room's history as the private chapel in this stately home.

The Drawing Room

An elegantly pretty room, the Drawing Room offers exquisite decorative detailing paired with modern interior styling. The beautiful curved bay window opens up to breathtaking views of the Surrey Hills beyond the Lawns and Terrace. A lovely space for the bride to prepare or simply somewhere for guests to relax and enjoy the day.

The Orangerie

Sitting off to the side of the Ballroom with views of the beautiful Surrey Hills, our Orangerie really is one of a kind. Majestic stone and stained glass create a distinct exterior while the interior echoes and reflects the adjacent Ballroom perfectly.

Rural beauty

Frensham Hall is set within 100 acres of established woodlands, sweeping lawns and romantic walled gardens. You'll find it hard to believe you are only an hour from the hustle of London as your day unfolds to the sound of birdsong. If your heart belongs to the outdoors, you'll find the perfect spot here for a beautiful natural wedding - whether beneath the majestic trees or within the elegant Walled Garden. Or perhaps simply stood in front of a breathtaking backdrop of the rolling Surrey Hills.

The Walled Garden

The magical Walled Garden offers a wonderful location for an intimate outdoor wedding. Exquisite detailing and a pretty lined walkway frame a beautiful entrance for the wedding party. The raised belvedere cupola creates the perfect stage for wedding vows and beautiful photographs.

The Treehouse

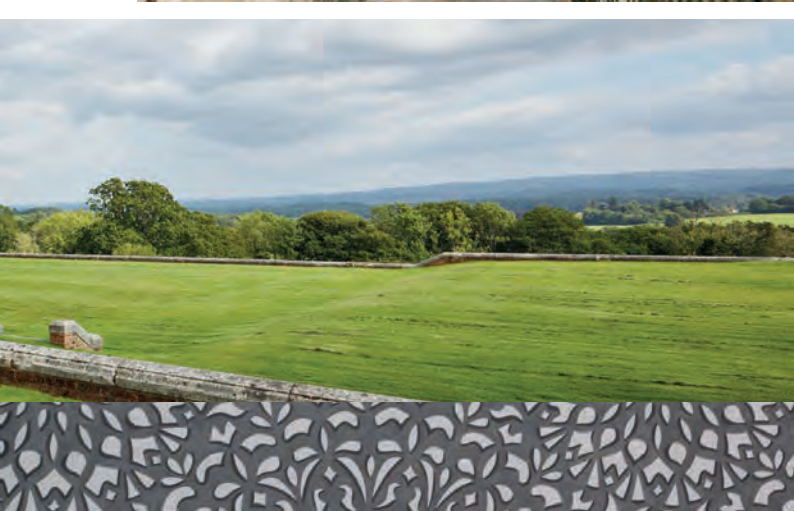

The beauty of Frensham Hall really does lie in the wealth of opportunities which allow for the most unique events. Just beyond the main house, nestled on the edge of the woods, sits our magical Treehouse - perfect for an intimate woodland ceremony or as a quirky hub to sit alongside your main event.

The Courtyard

Through ornate stone walls, the Courtyard sits just before the main entrance to Frensham Hall. A sheltered, enclosed area, the Courtyard lends itself to traditional grand entrances and exits, but has also hosted a ferris wheel and dodgem cars in its time.

The Lawns & Terrace

The Terrace and sweeping Lawns lie along the south facade of Frensham Hall - accessible directly from the Ballroom, Orangerie and reception area. A flexible open space, the Lawns lend themselves to summer games or modern marquees. The Terrace is the perfect place to host drinks and canapés alfresco while soaking in the outstanding view.

Food & Drink

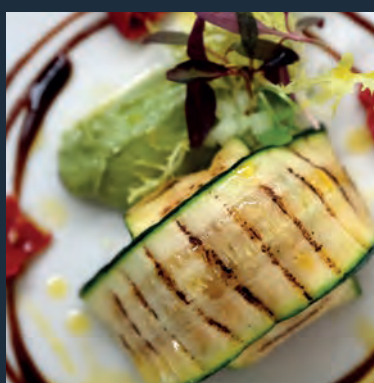

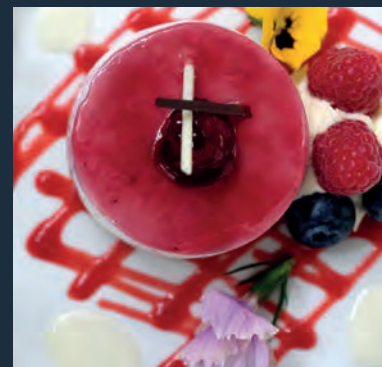

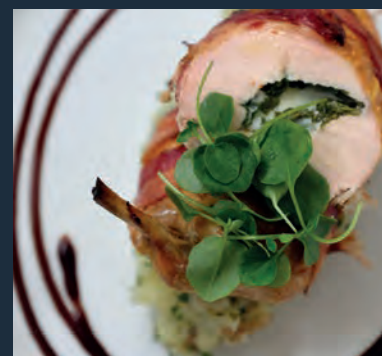

Our onsite caterers, Holroyd Howe, will make your culinary dreams come true. From your first visit, our experienced Chef and Events Manager will work with you to create the perfect menu and catering experience for your event.

With the flexibility and knowledge of a team of experienced staff, any theme or cuisine can be catered for. From full formal wedding breakfasts to evening street food or barbeques, with every dietary requirement considered.

As with all aspects of your wedding at Frensham Hall, we are a blank canvas waiting to bring your dream day to reality. We can create your menu to suit any theme or international cuisine. Through tasting sessions, you can sample our expertly-prepared dishes - quality and presentation will be exactly as on the day.

Everything is prepared onsite using seasonal and local ingredients where possible and our team will be on hand throughout your day to make sure everything goes off without a hitch.

As you and your guests make memories and enjoy every moment of the day, our expertly trained team will be working hard behind the scenes. From meticulous presentation to simultaneous serving (so no guest is left awkwardly waiting for their meal to arrive), we will take care of every detail. Behind the scenes we will be working to timed precision to make sure every element of your day happens as it should.

THE FINER DETAILS

It's all in the detail. At Frensham Hall, we pride ourselves on offering a very personal bespoke service. We will take you on a journey of possibilities to create your perfect day. Although there may be limitations or restrictions along the way, we will do our very best to find solutions before ruling anything out. We'll be here from start to finish, so leave your worries and stress behind and just enjoy your big day.

We are licensed for civil ceremonies in the Ballroom, Long Gallery, Tree House and Walled Garden.

There are capacity limits for each room and procedures to follow with the Registrar in Guildford to book a civil ceremony, but we will help every step of the way.

Please find below our license capacity for civil ceremonies:

The Ballroom (licensed for 150)

The Long Gallery (licensed for 90)

The Tree House (licensed for 40)

The Walled Gardens (licensed for 150)

For receptions, we can offer the utmost flexibility and versatility to accommodate your event, please just get in touch.

There are several beautiful village churches in close proximity to Frensham Hall as well as the Mubarak Mosque and St Joan of Arc Catholic Church.

Our special invitation to you

To fully appreciate what we can offer you and so that we can fully understand your dreams for your special day, we would love to invite you to visit us at Frensham Hall. We recognise that no matter how enticing our photos appear, it is just not possible to convey the first-class care, service and attention that we will deliver without thorough discussions with you. It's never too early to start your wedding planning so we invite you to Frensham Hall for the first step on a journey of possibilities to create your perfect day with us.

Please call us on 01252 797435
or email on enquiries@frenshamhall.co.uk

Thank you to our recommended wedding photographers for allowing us to share their photos in this brochure:

Matt Willis - www.mattwillisphotography.com

Carl Glancey - www.carlglanceyphotography.com

Alistair Jones - www.idealimaging.uk.com

David Weightman - www.marriedtomycamera.com

Murray Clarke - www.murrayclarke.co.uk

Mark Langridge - www.marklangridge.co.uk

